Mr. McMahon,

Recall McFarlane's request to have someone talk to Congressman Wilson to determine what he wanted to talk to the President about on Afghanistan. [redacted] has been advised that Congressman Wilson will be out of town through Tuesday (remember the hearing is supposed to be on Tuesday). The Congressman apparently would be delighted to have [redacted] brief him in Texas on Saturday or Sunday. Do you think it is worth it? Please call [redacted] at home this evening at [redacted] and give him your answer.
